

The University of Memphis Dietetic Internship and Residency Program
Department of Consumer Science and Education
Clinical Residency Competencies

Intern: Kristi McClung

Dates: Week 1: 12/10-12, 12/15-16; Week 2: 1/5-9; Week 3: 1/12-16; Week 4: 1/19-23; Week 5: 1/26-30

Preceptor: MaryAnn Lindsey, RD, LDN and Ginger Armistead, MS, RD, LDN

Facility: St. Francis Nursing Home (3 weeks) and St. Francis Bariatric Surgery Center (2 weeks)

OBJECTIVE: The student will demonstrate a basic understanding of the following areas:

1. Nutrition assessment of geriatric & bariatric population.
2. Ability to prescribe appropriate nutrition regimen for geriatric & bariatric population.
3. Select the best product to meet nutritional needs of each patient/resident.
4. Practice care planning for each patient/resident.
5. Monitor nutrition care plans and patient/resident status.
6. Initiation and management of nutrition support in geriatric & bariatric patients.
7. Explanation of laboratory values in each individual patient.
8. Participate in nutrition education activities for the geriatric & bariatric patient.
9. Observe daily routine of dietitian in assessing and consulting patient/resident needs.
10. Participate in team meetings.
11. Interact at an appropriate level with professional staff.

The University of Memphis Dietetic Internship and Residency Program
Department of Consumer Science and Education
Clinical Residency Competencies

Intern: Kristi McClung

Date: December 2003-January 2004

Preceptor: MaryAnn Lindsey, RD, LDN, and Ginger Armistead, MS, RD, LDN

Facility: St. Francis Nursing Home and St. Francis Bariatric Surgery Center

OBJECTIVES:

- | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|-----|
| 1. Nutrition assessment of geriatric & bariatric population. | A | B | C | N/A |
| 2. Ability to prescribe appropriate nutrition regimen for geriatric & bariatric population. | A | B | C | N/A |
| 3. Select the best product to meet nutritional needs of each patient/resident. | A | B | C | N/A |
| 4. Practice care planning for each patient/resident. | A | B | C | N/A |
| 5. Monitor nutrition care plans and patient/resident status. | A | B | C | N/A |
| 6. Initiation and management of nutrition support in geriatric & bariatric patients. | A | B | C | N/A |
| 7. Explanation of laboratory values in each individual patient. | A | B | C | N/A |
| 8. Participate in nutrition education activities for the geriatric & bariatric patient. | A | B | C | N/A |
| 9. Observe daily routine of dietitian in assessing and consulting patient/resident needs. | A | B | C | N/A |
| 10. Participate in team meetings. | A | B | C | N/A |
| 11. Interact well with professional staff. | A | B | C | N/A |

